| (8)   |  | No generally required additional documentation.   |   |  |

NOTE: In addition to the above generally required documentation requirements, an agency is authorized to request supplemental information, explanations, or certifications from an employee if the agency has reason to believe that EPL is not being used appropriately. Once an employee has met the generally required documentation requirements described above, the agency may grant conditional approval of EPL. However, an agency may deny EPL based on an agency's determination that an employee's justification for the leave is not supported by the documents submitted or any other available facts. If the agency questions the validity or adequacy of the employee's justification, the employee must have an opportunity to provide documentation or further supplement his/her response to the agency before EPL is denied. An agency may conditionally approve use of EPL pending receipt of supplemental documentation and other information as required under the first sentence of this NOTE; however, it must ensure that the employee understands his/her obligations to resolve the overpayment of leave if the agency's final decision is to deny the leave.
