	GENETIC INFORMATION NONDI	SCRIMINATION ACT (GINA) STATEMENT

The Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) prohibits employers and other entities covered by GINA Title II from requesting or requiring genetic information of an individual or family member of the individual, except as specifically allowed by this law. For the provider completing this form, do not provide any genetic information when responding to this request for medical information. Genetic Information, as defined by GINA, includes the following: an individual's family medical history; the results of an individual's or family members' genetic tests; the fact that an individual or an individual's family member sought or received genetic services; and genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual, or an individual's family member, or an embryo lawfully held by an individual or family member receiving assistive reproductive services.

PRIVACY ACT NOTICE

The collection, maintenance, and disclosure of this information is governed by the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a).

AUTHORITY: The Department of Commerce requests the patient information solicited on this form to carry out the agency's responsibilities pursuant to 22 U.S.C. 2680b, as amended by the Helping American Victims Affected by Neurological Attacks (HAVANA) Act of 2021 (Pub. L. 117-46) and the Department's implementing regulations at part 3 to Subtitle A of Title 15, Code of Federal Regulations.

PURPOSE: The principal purpose for which the Department of Commerce will use the patient information solicited on this form is to assist the agency in determining the patient's medical eligibility for potential payment under the HAVANA Act, for which the assessment and diagnosis of a qualifying injury by a board-certified neurologist is required.

ROUTINE USES: In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b), records maintained as part of this system of records – DEPT-32, Helping American Victims Afflicted by Neurological Attacks Act of 2021 (HAVANA Act) Records – may be routinely disclosed to the U.S. Department of State to verify prior employment; to the U.S. Department of Labor and/or the Social Security Administration to determine reemployment potential or disability status; to a state Board of Medicine, or any similar organization, to verify a certifying physician's medical license; and, to a certified physician attesting to an individual's eligibility when necessary to follow up regarding information provided on an individual's application. A complete set of routine disclosures is included in the system of records notice, published both in the Federal Register and on the Department's website at: www.commerce.gov/privacy.

VOLUNTARY DISCLOSURE: Disclosing the information requested on this form is voluntary; however, failure to provide such information will preclude the patient's eligibility for payment authorized under the HAVANA Act of 2021.
