Privacy Act Advisory Statement

The Privacy Act of 1974 requires that you be given certain information about this request for information. The authority for the accommodation request form is derived from the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, which stipulates that Federal agencies must provide reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities. 29 U.S.C. Section 791; 29 C.F.R. Part 1614; see also 20 C.F.R. part 1630. Further, Executive Order 13164 mandates that Federal agencies have written procedures for providing reasonable accommodation and maintain records in order to monitor the effectiveness of the procedures. Completion of this form is voluntary, however, no accommodation may be given to a qualified individual without this written information. The Director, Office of Civil Rights, shall maintain a record of all accommodation requests, which will be utilized to determine the efficacy and consistency of the reasonable accommodation procedures process and be compiled for reports to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC); these records are subject to periodic review by the EEOC, at its request, to ensure compliance. Other routine uses are listed below.

Routine Uses

1. In the event that a system of records maintained by the Department to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law or contract, whether civil, criminal, or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute or contract, or rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant thereto, or the necessity to protect an interest of the Department, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, state, local, or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute or contract, or rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant thereto, or protecting the interest of the Department.
2. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a Federal, state, or local agency maintaining civil, criminal, or other relevant enforcement information, or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a Department decision concerning the assignment, hiring, or retention of an individual, the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.
3. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a Federal, state, local or international agency, in response to its request, in connection with the assignment, hiring, or retention of an individual, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of the individual, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.
4. A record from this system of records may be disclosed in the course of presenting evidence to a court, magistrate, or administrative tribunal, including disclosures to opposing counsel in the course of settlement negotiations.
5. A record in this system of records may be disclosed to a Member of Congress submitting a request involving an individual when the individual has requested assistance from the Member with respect to the subject matter of the record.
6. A record in this system of records may be disclosed to the Department of Justice in connection with determining whether disclosure thereof is required by the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552).
7. A record in this system of records may be disclosed to a contractor of the Department having need for the information in the performance of a contract, but not operating a system of records within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. 552a(m).
8. A record in this system may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management for personnel research purposes; as a data source for management information; for the production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained; or for related manpower studies.
9. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to the Administrator, General Services Administration (GSA), or his designee, during an inspection of records conducted by GSA as part of that agency's responsibility to recommend improvements in records management practices and programs under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906. Such disclosure shall be made in accordance with the GSA regulations governing inspection of records for this purpose, and any other relevant (i.e. GSA or Commerce) directive. Such disclosure shall not be used to make determinations about individuals.
10. A record in this system of records may be disclosed to any source from which additional information is requested in the course of processing a grievance to the extent necessary to identify the individual, inform the source of the purposes(s) of the request, and identify the type of information requested.
11. A record in this system of records may be disclosed to officials of the Office of Personnel Management, Merit Systems Protection Board, including the Office of the Special Counsel, the Federal Labor Relations Authority and its General Counsel, or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Department of State, or the Department of Labor when requested in performance of their authorized duties.
12. A record in this system of records may be disclosed in response to a request for discovery or for appearance of a witness, information that is relevant to the subject matter involved in a pending judicial or administrative proceeding.
13. A record in this system of records may be disclosed to officials or labor organizations reorganized under the Civil Service Reform Act when relevant and necessary to their duties of exclusive representation concerning personnel policies, practices, and matters affecting work conditions.
14. A record in this system of records may be disclosed to commercial contractors (debt collection agencies) for the purpose of collecting delinquent debts authorized by the Debt Collection Act (31 U.S.C. 3718).
15. A record in this system of records may be disclosed to Senior State Department officials at U.S. Embassies, including the Ambassador, Deputy Chief of Mission, Administrative Counselor and Human Resource Officers, for matters relating to employment or security issues pertaining to Department of Commerce employees working in U.S. Embassies or facilities overseas.
