

SERVICE WITH OUTSIDE ORGANIZATIONS

After leaving Federal service former Government employees are subject to some restrictions, primarily limiting contacting the Government on behalf of others. The restrictions vary based on the employee's position and pay level.

	1 year	2 years	5 years	forever
use or disclosure of nonpublic information contact Federal agencies on specific-party matters on which employee worked contact Federal agencies on specific-party matters under official responsibility serve as a registered foreign agent for a foreign government or political party contact former agency
rep/advise foreign gov't
lobby a political appointee in the Executive Branch				(for President's term) lobby former agency
work for the Federal Government get pay from contractor work for a financial aid recipient obtain patent rights

restrictions for all employees are in GREEN restrictions for all senior employees (basic pay > $164,004) are in RED restrictions for senior political appointees (basic pay > $164,004) are in BLUE restrictions for all political appointees in PURPLE restrictions for all employees who receive a buy-out are in BLACK restrictions for procurement officials of $10,000,000 procurements are in GRAY restrictions for EDA employees are in YELLOW restrictions for USPTO employees in ORANGE

IN ADDITION:

- all employees are barred from receiving payments for Federal representational activities by others (partners) when the former employee was in Federal service
- attorneys must comply with bar rules

Ethics Law and Programs Division – Office of the General Counsel
 United States Department of Commerce
 202-482-5384 – ethicsdivision@doc.gov – www.commerce.gov/ethics
 January 2, 2019